

PRESIDENT PLEASED OVER NOMINATION

Congratulated at Cabinet Meeting by Advisers. Who Predict Success at Polls.

FELICITOUS TELEGRAMS
POUR INTO WHITE HOUSE

Forecasts of Re-Election Based on Belief Majority of People Approve His Course.

President Wilson was in a happy frame of mind this morning when his cabinet officers, one after the other, congratulated him on his renomination and predicted his re-election. The regular semi-weekly cabinet meeting began at 11 o'clock.

The President did not go to the executive offices until nearly time for the cabinet to meet. He had remained in his study at the White House, going over the newspaper account of the St.
Louis convention and reading telegrams from friends in that city and elsewhere. The flood of congratulatory telegrams began arriving at the White House early, and there was an optimistic tone to all of them. From Vice President Marshall all down the line the messages predicted that the President would be elected for another four years in the White House.

Mr. Marshall's Telegram.
Vice President Marshall's telegram from Indianapolis said:

"In the light which you are to win I am always yours to command."

Mr. Marshall's message was one of the many the President read to the cabinet at its meeting.

For Mrs. Wilson and other members of the presidential household the renomi-nation was greatly pleasing. They had discounted the event, but the enthusiasm of the convention, the incidents and oratory, Mr. Bryan's confident predictions, all tended to awakening a jubilant feeling.

Cabinet officers openly and freely prophesied the success of the democratic ticket in November. They did not wish to be quoted, however. One of the President's principal advisers in the cabinet said: "The fact will be sufficient, but the President will again carry his party to victory."

Basis of Confidence.
The confidence as to the future is based upon the belief that the President will keep as steady a head on questions coming up between now and November as he has done through critical moments of the last three and a half years. It was declared that the President, in all action he has taken on foreign policies, has had a majority of the cabinet of the country behind him.

He has sensed the opinions of the people and tried to conform his decisions to that opinion. There is no reason to think a cabinet officer said today, that the President felt away from the judgment of the country hereafter, no matter what takes place.

White House officials were somewhat late in arriving at their desks today.
They had remained on duty until an early hour this morning keeping in touch with the work of the St. Louis convention. There were not many visitors to the executive offices. Leading democrats of Senate and House are in St. Louis, as are prominent democrats from all parts of the country who invariably call at the White House when in Washington.

MR. MARSHALL GRATEFUL.

Only Purpose Is to Serve in President Wilson's Cause.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 16.—Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, when called out of bed here and informed of his renomination, said he was very grateful.

"All I can say is I express my gratitude to my Indiana and other friends for their great loyalty," he said, "and to the convention for the high compliment of a renomination with my chieftain. I believe in the certainty of his re-election, and my only purpose is to serve his cause, which I believe to be that of our party and of our country wholeheartedly."

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall have been guests of Indianapolis friends for several days.

GIVES INTERESTING PROGRAM.

Central High School Graduating Class Holds Exercises.

The graduating class of Central High School presented an interesting program at its class night exercises, held last night at the school. A comedy, entitled "Land Me Five Shillings," by John M. Morton, was the biggest feature. The cast was composed of Charles W. Ockstad, Franklin C. Knack, Leo W. Simon, Horace L. Stevenson, Allen S. Jones, Hortense M. King and Mildred D. Minster.

Joseph W. Belcher, Jr., president of the class, opened the exercises with an address, and, following a selection by the orchestra, Emory M. Wilson, principal of the school, spoke to the graduates. Elizabeth Hale then gave a reading from "King John." Dorothy G. Ropp, editor of the Review for this year, spoke in a valdeictory. Mary E. Croggan was at the piano. The exercises closed with a selection by the orchestra.
The class officers are: Joseph W.
Belcher, Jr., president; Laura Filer, vice president; Marie Hall, secretary; and William J. Flood, treasurer. The class night committee consisted of Catherine Gutelius, Herbert Jones, Nanciea Gutelius, and others.

Annual Department Managers' Sale

Hecht & Co.

Seventh Street Near F

Again the department managers have complete jurisdiction of the store's merchandise and selling problems—and right well are they taking care of things. If you were here today, no need to tell you we scored a triumph. As this page is being prepared for the press each buyer reports enthusiastically of the crowds in his department, indicating that new and greater records will replace the old ones before this sale of 1916 is history.
